

Ministry to Seniors

St. George's reaches out to our seniors and homebound parishioners to remain connected with those who are not able to worship regularly in church.

The Anglican Club works to build a community among seniors who are specifically interested in the tradition and worship of the Anglican and Episcopal faith.

Our Lay Eucharistic Visitors take Holy Eucharist to parish members who are homebound, hospitalized, or living in retirement communities and local health care facilities.

